To the Students of Washington and Lee:

Some of you may recall my remark to you on a pleasant April morning that I did not know any other group of young men who morning that I did not know any other group of young men who are heirs of a legacy of such distinction.

In your behalf Washington made his greatest donation, embodying his dream for the future of the country he had helped to forge. In your behalf Lee lahored for memorable years. Into your hands he committed his prophecy and his hope. To these illustrious names are joined many others of great distinction who toiled elsewhere to establish on this campus a concrete evidence of their faith in yourse life. young life.

It is not merely sentiment which assumes that upon you rests a peculiar obligation. Beyond the felicities of personal culture and beyond the profits of personal competence, education at Washington and Lee implies an acknowledgment of a high trust.

BOOK FIVE → FEATURES

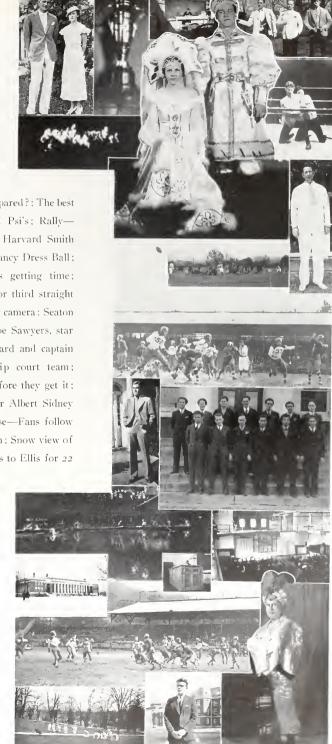

COMMEMORATING LEE'S BIRTHDAY

Frank Bailey and Justine White snapped just before treke to marriage altar last finals; Generals first Virginia possessor of Southern Conference basketball trophy; Prepared—or unprepared?: The best dressed men—by some Phi Psi's; Rally—beat the Wahoos—we did; Harvard Smith and Dot Fly as leaders of Fancy Dress Ball; One of Mathis's beginners getting time; Wahoos taking the count for third straight year; Dean Gilliam poses for camera; Seaton lets fly one in Ky. game; Joe Sawyers, star halfback, all southern forward and captain of Generals' championship court team; White Friar Goats—just before they get it; Harry Lee crew victors over Albert Sidney by one-half length; Next case—Fans follow Blue and White on gridgraph; Snow view of Doremus gym; Seaton passes to Ellis for 22 yards as Generals give Kentucky Wildcats their first defeat 7-0: The Sigma goats "whispering" to George: "Kippy" Sauerbrun—co-captain of baseball: Carl Gill, responsible for many successful Fancy Dress Balls, as he appeared in "Arabian Nights."

Left page: Alumni luncheon—finals 1933; rear view of campus; Memorial Gate during heavy snow; Professor "Mac" in action; Bathing Beauties; Ky. kicks off-Generals drive 94 yards for touchdown; Class of 1908, reunion; Tom Boland-Varsity guard for three years, secretary of Athletic Council; Bud Hanley, varsity end for three years and all southern, second team 1033: Bailey smashes Indian line; Cooke bags runner at third; Lee chapel; Praising Allah; Amos Bolen - Grid captain, all-southern guard, honorable mention All-American; Sam Mattox-captain-elect football; Faculty marching to assembly; Robt. E. Lee hotel, scene of frat dance during Fancy Dress; Restful study; They call it fun; Sawyers gets off a high one vs. Ky.

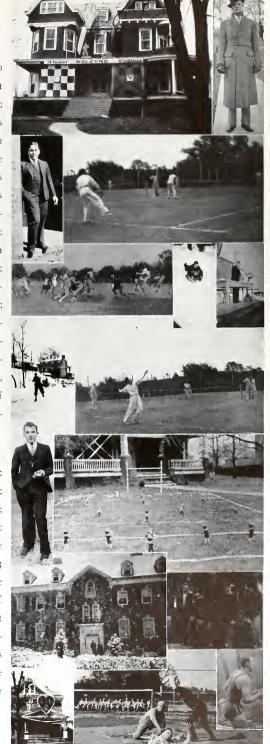

Right page: March was a snowy month; Harry Hazell—captain of track; Assembly; Washington College at night; Fair sex go for a ride; Henry Cohen-captain of golf and swimming for two years; Homecoming at Phi Delt house; Saved by the 12:30 bell; Sigma Nus go native; Delt house snowed under; More shining "Sigma goats"; Capt'n Amos; K. A. house-intra-mural cups galore; Hell week at P. K. FINALS - - 1934

A warm, spring breeze—swaying trees in full bloom—the tramp of feet along the walks at noon—"glad those exams are over"—the air of celebration—"she gets in sometime this evening"—and along about twilight she and countless others sweep into town from all directions in a symphony of gaiety and laughter—that night, fleecy clouds shade a silvery moon—listening once more to genial Jan Garber—beneath soft lights—streamers, exotic gowns, the gleam of white and black—Interfraternity Ball—warm prelude to Pan-White Friar dansant and Sigma German—the parade of white in the afternoon—white shoes, white flannels, white dresses—baseball—movies—fraternity horse-play—the call of the road—to Goshen, Lovers' Leap, North River—the roar of cars and lilt of laughter in the quiet a midnight—the quiet laziness of Sunday—Baccalaureate—the campus, shaded green grass, falling blooms, the gleam of white columns—couples strolling—Senior Alumni Ball—glad greetings—late and later dates—the pride of 1934 in full parade—the march of cap and gowns to the Chapel—a warm breeze through the windows—and suddenly you have a diploma in your hands—dimers, luncheons, teas—families, friends, fraternities—the Final Ball—color, music, gaiety—and then, as gray gives way to red and apple green, the lump in the throat feeling—partings—good-byes—farewells—milestone—and the last notes of "College Friendships"—as dawn breaks—

Our college friendships soon must sever, And fade as does the dying day, Our closest bonds must all be broken, As through this world we wend our way. But yet—whatever be life's fortunes, Though friendships fail and friends be few, We'll love thee still, our Alma Mater, Our dear old W. and L. U.

In Memoriam

Dr. Henry Donald Campbell

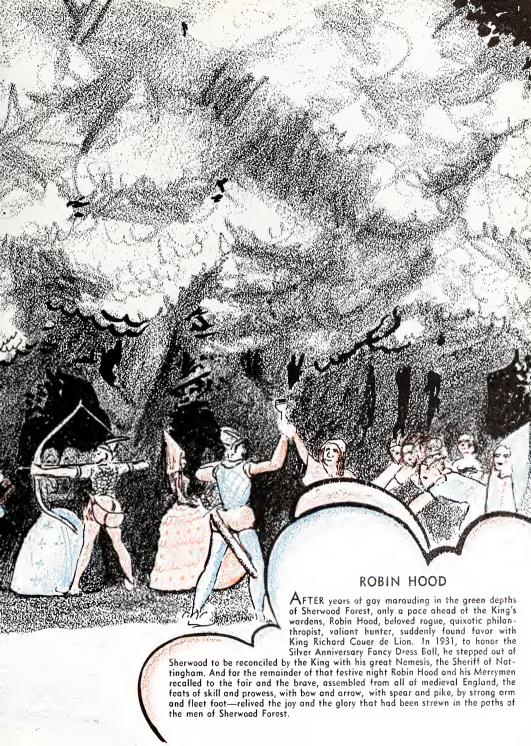

About two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, April 10, 1934, the sad news quietly spread over the campus that Dr. Henry Donald Campbell was dead. This word brought sorrow to the hearts of faculty and students alike.

By reason of his character and experience he fully merited the recognition that by common consent was given him as the senior member of the faculty. Constant in friendship, wise and prudent in counsel, stanchly upholding justice and right, warning against dangers, yet ever ready for progress, he was honored and loved by us all.

Born on the campus, whence he was gathered to his fathers, he probably more fully embodied the spirit and traditions of Washington and Lee than any other single individual who has ever been connected with the institution. With him closes a unique period of continuous service of eighty-two years in the same department of the University by two members of the same family. His father, John Lyle Campbell, was an honored professor of geology for thirty-five years, and Dr. Campbell himself, who succeeded his father, served for forty-seven years in the same professorship, and during twenty-six of these years he was also Dean of the University. Requiescat in pace.

WARREN E. "TEX" TILSON
Head Coach

Resume

Under the tutelage of a new coach and a "New Deal" in Athletics, Head Coach "Tex" Tilson and his assistant, "Cy" Young, using a modified Warner system of play, led the Blue and White through one of the most successful seasons enjoyed in many years. The gridmen tackling one of the hardest schedules possible, emerged with a most creditable record; and the promises for a strong 1934 eleven are even brighter with a wealth of material coming in from the championshin Yearling squad.

wealth of material coming up from the championship Yearling squad.

The Generals started off the season with their annual game with West Virginia's powerful Mountaineers. Outweighed twenty pounds to the man and doped to lose by several touchdowns, the Blue and White battled their opponents on even terms, and emerged from the field with a 0-0 deadlock—the first time a W. and L. eleven has tied the Mountaineers since 1927. Defensive work by Mattox and punting by Sawyers, featured the General's play.

The next Saturday, Tilson's gridmen defeated an unusually strong Roanoke College team, 14-6. The General forward wall threw the Maroon backs for a loss of 46 yards on running plays while the Blue and White gained 130 yards through the visitors' line. The William and Mary Indians next invaded Lexington and were defeated 7-0; due chiefly to Sawyer's 54-yard return of a punt to place the ball in scoring position where Mattox scored from the 10-yard line. The feature of the Generals' offense was a drive from their 7 to the Indians' 16-yard stripe in nine plays.

Captain Bolen then led his team against Yale in New Haven and finally lost, 14-0, after a stiff battle against the Northerners. The Blue and White drove to Yale's 23-yard line in the first quarter, but lost the ball on a pass over the goal line. Yale beean a determined drive in the second quarter and finally scored after a gallant stand by the Generals, featuring Boland and Glynn's play. Yale's last tally resulted from a fumble by the General's safety; Yale recovering on 20-yard line and pushing over another score.

On October 21, the Generals met the strong, undefeated Kentucky eleven in Roanoke. Outweighed 18 pounds to the man, the Blue and White completely outplayed the Wildcats to upset their winning streak with a 7-0 victory. After a scoreless first half, the Generals received the kick-off and drove 94 yards for a touchdown, Sawyers scoring on a shuttle pass from the To-yard line. The Generals outrushed the Wildcats 128 yards to 80 yards and bottled up, Kerchivial, their star back.

STATE CHAMPIONS

Coach Tilson next week led his gridmen to Princeton, to face the undefeated Tiger term and succeeded in holding them to the lowest score of the season, a 6-0 victory; but a heart-breaker to lose. Although W. and L. crossed Princeton's goal twice, once when Dyer intercepted a pass and another time when Sawyers scored, on the same play that heat Kentucky, after a drive to the Tiger 10-yard line, both were disallowed by the referee. Princeton was completely outplayed. The Generals rolled up 11 first downs to their 10; gained 147 yards to their 137; netted 78 yards on passes to their 28; and made no fumbles to their six.

On November 4, after a strain of the Yale, Kentucky, and Princeton games, the Generals opened their Big Four campaign by playing V. P. I. in Blacksburg which ended in a 7-7 deadlock. The offense was featured by Seaton's 63-yard return of a pum which put the ball in a scoring position where Mattox finally bucked it over and kicked the extra point. The Gobblers scored early in the first quarter on a pass over the goal. In fourth quarter, after an exchange of punts, V. P. I, drove to the Generals' 4-yard line with four downs for a score and at the end of the fourth down it was still four yards to go, featured by a determined stand by the Blue and White line.

Returning to Lexington for Homecoming and their last local appearance, the Generals whipped the Virginia Wahoos for the third straight year and cinched the state championship with a 6-0 victory. The Blue and White tally came in the last quarter when Joe Sawyers took a Wahoo punt on his 15-yard line and ran through the entire Virginia team for a score. The play of Captain Bolen was outstanding as well as the entire team.

The strenuous schedule which had been showing on the squad ever since the Princeton game when the Generals were at their peak, ripened into actuality the last two games when Centre defeated the Blue and White 12-0 in Danville for their homecoming; and Maryland crushed the Generals in their last game of the season at College Park, 33-13. Crippled with the loss of three regulars in the backfield, the defense was helpless against the Colonel passes which brought both their tallies. The Generals piled up 13 first downs to their 4, however. At College Park, with regulars still missing, the Blue and White jumped to an early 13-0 lead, but then cracked and Maryland ran across five touchdowns over a broken W. and L. team—the eleven that had beaten Kentucky and outplayed Princeton just couldn't keep form during the latter part of the gruelling ten-game schedule. The season on a whole was successful, winning four, losing four and tving two over the outstanding teams of the East and state.

Resume

The Generals' chances of a good season were lessened by the ineligibility of Heuthorne, star guard of 1933 and Ellis, star freshman center of last year. Coach "Cy" Young molded his team around the veterans Captain Joe Sawyers, Smith, Fields, and Jones.

St. Johns was the first team played and defeated by a 38-28 margin on the local count. Virginia was next defeated in Lynchburg by a 26-25 count in a thrilling encounter—the lead changed five times during last half. Sawyers bagged the winning goal in last seconds of play. The Blue and White suffered their first defeat at the hands of the strong U. N. C. quint. Lagging 21-7 at the half, the Generals found themselves in the last period, scoring 17 points to Carolina's 13, but lost 34-24.

The next week saw the Generals invade North Carolina and after holding N. C. State to a 13-9 margin at half, finally lost 30-17. The next evening at Durham, in a close game, Duke finally nosed out a 41-37 victory in which the lead changed ten times during the game. Duke led at the half 22-20. Returning home and then journeying to Morgantown to play West Virginia, the Generals couldn't get going and dropped the encounter by a 41-27 score. Duke was next tackled in Lynchlurg and after leading the Blue Devils in the first quarter and trailing 21-19 at half, the Durham quint pulled away for a 41-27 win.

Returning to Lexington, and strengthened by the return of Ellis to the squad, the Generals crushed V. P. I., 47-31. Smith, Pette, and Ellis led the offense. The next night William and Mary was defeated 44-27 by an improved General team. Journeying over to Blacksburg, the Gobblers were overwhelmed 48-30; featured by Charlie Smith scoring 15 points in 12 minutes in the last half.

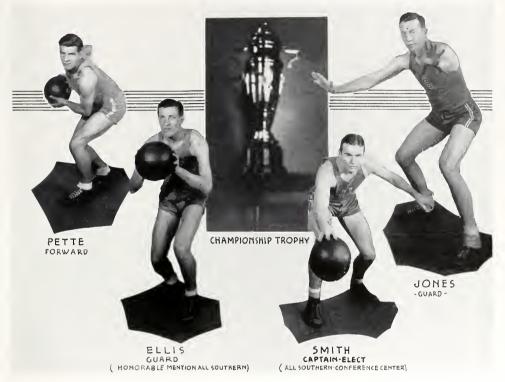

The Red Terriors of N. C. State were the next victims, succumbing 43-47 in one of the best played games of the year in Doremus gym. Pette and Ellis each scored 12 points, while Sawyers held Rex, star visiting guard, to no field goals. Richmond was met later in the week and defeated 20-26 in a slow contest.

Virginia nosed out the Blue and White quint 31-30 in Charlottesville and George Washington edged out another close game by a 30-27 margin in Washington, when Coach Young rested the regulars for the tournament in Raleigh.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Southern Conference Tournament Won by Washington and Lee

RALEIGH, N. C.-MARCH 1, 2, 3

In the thirteenth annual tournament, South Carolina, the defending champions, were seeded first; North Carolina, second; Duke, third; and Maryland, fourth. The Generals drew the strong Maryland quint as their first round opponents and administered a 45-37 trouncing to place them in the semi-finals. The shooting and passing of the entire team was superb.

Sawyers led the offense with 18 points which was the highest scored in any game during the tournament.

X. C. State pulled the upset by eliminating the championship South Carolina team and faced the Generals in the seninials. In a close game, the Blue and White defeated the Raleigh quint 32-28. The teamwork and passing of the entire team again featured for Coach Young's five. This victory placed the Generals in the finals against Duke who had upset

North Carolina.

North Carolina.

In a close and wonderfully exciting game, the Blue and White tossers came from behind in the last few secords of play to win the contest and the Southern Conference Championship with a 30-20 victory to give a Virginia team its first court Championship since the Conference was established in 1021. With fourteen seconds remaining and Duke leading 20-28, Captain Joe Sawyers broke up a Duke pass, dribbled the length of the floor to miss a snowbird; Pette following up, batter to the winning goal as the whistle sounded ending the game with a 30-20 margin for Washington and Lee.

Coach Young and his squad are to be congratulated on their achievement in giving W. and L. their first Basketball title and their lighting spirit throughout the tournament. Although the loss of Captain Joe Sawyers will be keenly felt, the Generals' chances of repeating in 1935 are excellent, with a wealth of freshmen material from the Yearling championship quint.

Archie E. Mathis

Resume

Washington and Lee's mat team, under the able tutelage of Coach Archie Mathis, continued its sweep in wrestling circles. Crew, Smith, Pritchard and Bonino went through the season undefeated in dual meets. The Generals won all their meets by overwhelming scores with the exception of a 16-16 deadlock with the Navy; and with an undefeated Yearling squad coming up, prospects look even better for next year.

WASHINGTON AND LEE, 31; JOHNS HOPKINS, 5

The General grapplers opened the season on the home mat by trouncing the visitors with the loss of only one match. Coach Mathis used six sophomores against the Hopkins team; falls were registered by: Crew, Shively, Pritchard and Seitz.

WASHINGTON AND LEE, 34; ROANOKE Y. M. C. A., o

The Roanokers were easy victims for the Blue and White as Mathis used an entirely different team with the exception of Bonino in the unlimited class. Five falls were gained by the Generals.

WASHINGTON AND LEE, 30; DAVIDSON, o

The next match saw the Davidson College team completely outclassed and blanked by the Generals on the local mat. DeVan, Seitz and Bonino gained falls.

WASHINGTON AND LEE, 20; N. C. U., 5

The Generals left for a North Carolina invasion, wrestling Carolina Friday and N. C. State on Saturday. Coach Mathis used five reserves against the Tar Heels, losing only one bout. Sarkis, Smith, Hodges and Bonino gained falls as the Blue and White easily defeated their opponents.

WASHINGTON AND LEE, 18; N. C. STATE, 6

Journeying over to Raleigh the next night, the matmen faced the undefeated Red Terriors of State, winning six matches and losing only two. No falls were registered, due chiefly to the smallness of the mat.

WASHINGTON AND LEE, 16, NAVY, 16

The next week found the Generals at Annapolis tackling the undefeated Navy squad which proved to be a thrilling encounter. Trailing 16-11 with only one match to go, Bonino pinned his rival in quick order to tie up the match at 16-all. Pritchard, Smith and Crew were the other winners for the Blue and White.

WASHINGTON AND LEE 27; V. P. I., 5

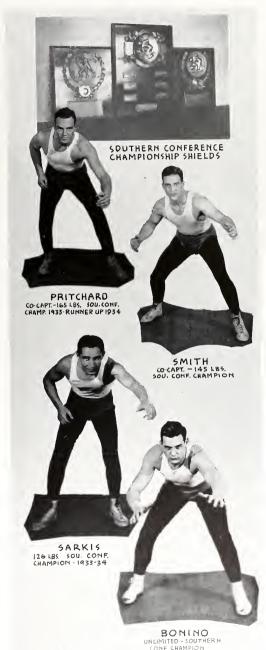

The Generals returned home to end the season with an easy victory over the Gobblers from Blacksburg with the loss of one match, Seitz losing to Waldrop, their Conference champion in a tussle packed with thrills. Crew, DeVan and Bonino gained falls; Bonino throwing his rival in 40 seconds.

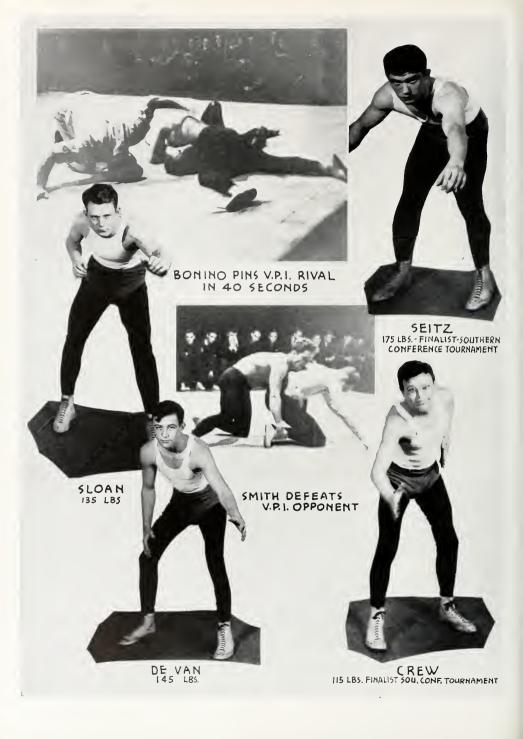

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT, HELD AT BLACKSBURG, VA.

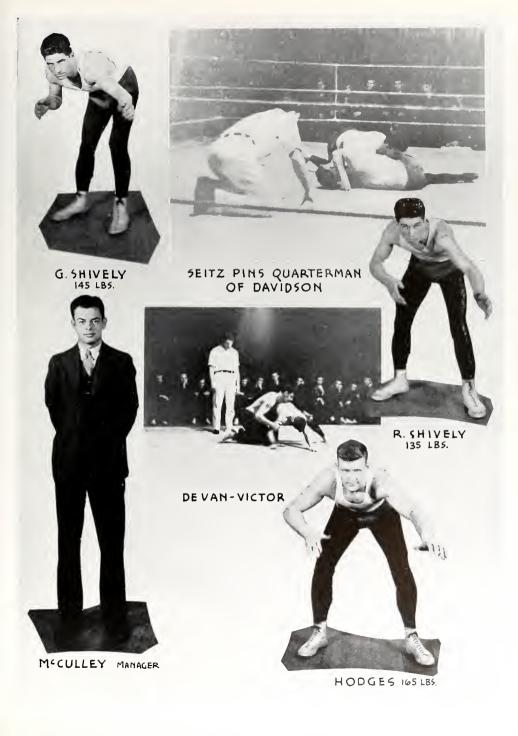

The Generals successfully defended their championship by piling up a total of 31 points, V. M. I. trailing. Sarkis retained his 126-pound championship; Smith captured the 145-pound title and Bonino the unlimited. Crew, 118 pounds, was runner-up; Pritchard, runner-up in 165 pounds: Seitz, runner-up in 155-pound division; Sloan, third in 135-pound; and Hodges, third in 175-pound division.

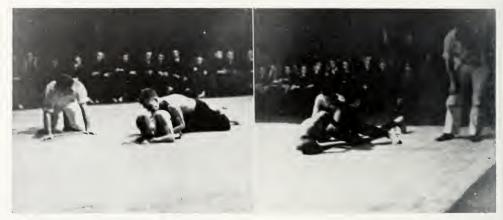

Co-Captain Smith went through his fourth season, undefeated in dual meets—losing only once in 1933 in the finals of tournament by a 50-second time advantage in an over period. Co-Captain Pritchard, Conference champion in 1933, was undefeated in four years of wrestling, dual meets; losing only in finals of 1934 tournament in 165-pound class. Pritchard gained third place in the National Intercollegiates held at Ann Harbor, Mich. Bonino lost in the semi-finals in the unlimited division in the National Intercollegiates but won the cup offered by Coach Mathis for the highest point score of the year—winning all of his matches by falls.

In the last five years, the Varsity has won 28, tied 1 and lost 1—a record hardly surpassed by any team in the country.

BOXING RESUME, 1934

The season opened in the local ring against Roanoke College with the Generals pounding out a 6½-½ victory. Corbett, Davies, Moore, Captain Mincher, Jean, and Martin won for the Blue and White. Short was held to a draw and Mincher won by a K. O., the only one of the evening.

Tilson's mitmen next journeyed to Raleigh to take on the strong State squad, who defeated the Blue and White by a 6-2 margin. Short outpointed his opponent in the 165-pound class, and Martin and Moore fought their rivals to a draw. Captain Mincher was defeated by his old rival, Garner, in a close battle which was the rubber fight after three years of rivalry.

The next week the Generals fought the V.P.I. team in the most colorful contest of the season. The match was featured by Captain Mincher's knockout of Captain Bussey after 2½ rounds of furious fighting. Davies, Reeser, Moore, Short and Martin were the other victors for the Blue and White. The heavyweight was forfeited to the visitors, giving the Generals a 6-2 margin.

Maryland was the next meet, and in a close battle the Generals emerged victors when Martin knocked out his opponent in the light-heavy class. Corbett also k.-oed his rival. Mincher got a forfeit; Short gained a decision; and Davies and his opponent fought to a draw as the Blue and White were victors by a $4^{1/2}$ - $3^{1/2}$ count.

The General mitmen entered the Southern Conference Tournament held at Charlottesville the next week, which was featured by Martin's advance to the finals when he lost a decision to his Maryland opponent, whom he had previously k.-oed and Moore's decision over Clemson's Captain.

The Blue and White closed the season with a journey to Annapolis to tackle the strong Navy team. Forfeiting to the Midshipmen in the 118 and unlimited weights, due to injuries, the Generals won two, lost three, and a draw in the remaining six matches. Davies and Martin were the victors, while Short and his opponent fought to a draw to make the final count 5½-2½ in favor of the Navy.

Martin and Short were undefeated in dual meets during the season.

AN EXPLANATION OF THE "FANCY DRESS THEME" OF THE 1934 CALYX

I N an attempt to recreate pleasant memories closely knitted with an event which every student of Washington and Lee looks backward with recollections of happy moments spent at his Alma Mater; an event which is nearly three decades old, the 1934 Calyx has attempted to retrospect.

The Editor has striven to leave the channels of repetition prevalent today in Yearbooks, by giving an entirely different central theme—taken from moments of forgetfulness of the worries and toils of life—

The art drawings and division page color schemes, drawn by an alumnus of Washington and Lee, have endeavored to bring to you a stimulating memory of bygone days, which will soon be evidenced by the class of 1934 of Washington and Lee.

The Staff of the 1934 Calvx expresses the sincerest hope that a pleasant review of these happy days spent together on this beautiful campus will be reflected again in the minds of the readers who glance through the pages of this book.

To my Staff and students of my Alma Mater I wish to thank, sincerely, for their work and support in helping to record the year of 1933-34 at Washington and Lee; and if in these pages there is some little incident, some picture, some saying, that will later bring back memories to their Alma Mater, I will be more than rewarded.

THE IMPRINT of PRIDE

Bids for patronage on a basis of price alone get small response from people who know the true worth of good quality in PRINTING. They prefer to pay the slight difference in the cost of good printing over mediocre printing because of the vastly superior Results obtained —and RESULTS, of course, are paramount.

BELL MADE ANNUALS are produced by skilled craftsmen to meet the most exacting requirements. But, measured by the standards of real service and satisfaction, they are, after all, the least expensive.
